

Mr. Iulian Groza is an expert in international relations, European affairs and good governance with a particular focus on EaP countries, EU and Russia. He is a former Deputy Foreign Minister of the Republic of Moldova in charge for European integration and international law. Before that he served in different capacities at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and European Integration, including as Director General and Deputy Director of the Directorate for European integration and was in charge for the coordination of EU-Moldova political dialogue and reform process in line with Moldova's commitments with the EU. He was also posted to Brussels at the Moldovan Mission to the EU. Currently, Iulian Groza leads the Institute for European Policies and Reforms (IPRE) - a Moldovan think-tank that aims at supporting the European integration process of the Republic of Moldova. He also is a Board member of the Institute for Strategic Initiatives (IPIS). Mr. Groza holds a University Degree in Law. He also did postgraduate European Studies at Birmingham University and NATO Security Studies at SNSPA in Bucharest. He is a J.D. candidate in law at the Moldovan State University. He is fluent in English, Russian and Romanian (native) languages. Mr. Groza is a career diplomat and holds a diplomatic rank of Minister-Counsellor. He is also an FCO Chevening Scholar.